

CHAPTER PAPER 7

LIST OF PREPARERS AND LIST OF PARTIES TO WHOM SENT

This chapter lists the individuals who assisted in the preparation and review of all portions of this Draft Environmental Impact Statement (DEIS). This chapter also identifies the individuals to whom this document was mailed, and the locations where the document is available for public review.

7.1 LIST OF PREPARERS

Listed below are the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) personnel who were responsible for preparation of this DEIS. Supporting FAA in this effort were individuals from Aerofinity, The Louis Berger Group, Clean World Engineering, TranSystems Corporation, and JFNew & Associates.

It should be noted that in accordance with Section 1506.5(c) of the CEQ Regulations, that FAA furnished guidance in the preparation of this document, provided independent evaluation of all information contained in it, and has full responsibility for its scope and content. All decisions as to project implementation are solely those of the FAA.

7.1.1 FAA Preparers

Prescott Snyder – Environmental Program Manager, FAA Great Lakes Region, MCP Masters of City Planning, The Ohio State University, and M.S. Natural Resource Development, The Ohio State University. 30 years environmental experience, 15 with the FAA.

Bobb Beauchamp – Environmental Program Manager, FAA Chicago Airports District Office. J.D., University of Michigan, and B.A. Michigan State University. 6 years of environmental experience as a practicing attorney, including federal enforcement, state regulatory adjudication and legislation, and private litigation.

7.1.2 FAA Contributors

Philip M. Smithmeyer – Manager, FAA Chicago Airports District Office. B.S. Civil Engineering, University of Illinois, 1966, 31 years of airport planning, design, and development with the FAA.

M. Thomas Bennett – Environmental Protection Specialist, FAA Headquarters. B.A. History 1967 Florida State University, 28 years NEPA review experience, responsible for overall review of the document to insure that it comports with relevant national guidance.

Denis R. Rewerts – P.E., Capacity Officer, FAA Chicago Airports District Office. BSCE, Bradley University 1971, 28 years experience with the FAA, 19 of which includes airport planning, development, and environmental.

Michael W. MacMullen – Over 32 years of NEPA preparation and review, including 30 years at U.S. EPA, Region 5, 10 spent as Region 5's Chief of EIS Review function. Over 2 years of experience with FAA.

Greg Sweeny – P.E. Program Manager, FAA Chicago Airports District Office. B.S. Civil Engineering, University of Vermont 1970, and M.S. Civil Engineering, University of California at Berkeley 1981. 33 years with the FAA, 10 years of design and installation of airway navigation facilities, 22 years of airport planning, engineering and grant management.

Lyle Hyde – Environmental Protection Specialist, FAA Great Lakes Region; Bachelor of Civil Engineering, 1968, Georgia Institute of Technology; BS in Public Health, 1977, California State University; 12 years NEPA review experience (11.5 with Federal Highway Administration); 15 years as environmental engineer, U.S. EPA, various Clean Water Act programs.

Annette Davis – Environmental Protection Specialist, FAA Great Lakes Region Air Traffic Division. B.S. Loyola University. Over 20 years aviation experience.

7.1.3 FAA Consultants

Susan M. Schalk, A.A.E., AICP, (Aerofinity), President. Program manager for the Gary/Chicago International Airport Environmental Impact Statement. Twenty years experience in airport facilities planning and development and airport operations. Indiana State University, B.S. in Aviation Administration and Indiana University, Masters (M.P.A.) in Urban and Regional Planning. Accredited Airport Executive and accredited by the American Institute of Certified Planners.

Melanie K. DePoy, (Aerofinity), Managing Principal. Senior planner for the Gary/Chicago International Airport Environmental Impact Statement. Sixteen years experience in the aviation industry. Indiana University B.A. in Communications. Melanie completed the Airport Planning course at University of Texas at Austin.

Susan J.H. Zellers, P.E., (Aerofinity), Principal. Senior planner for the Gary/Chicago International Airport Environmental Impact Statement. Ten years experience with airport planning and design projects. Purdue University B.S. and Masters (M.S.C.E) in Civil Engineering. Susan completed the National Environmental Policy Act Requirements and Procedures course held at the FAA Academy in 1995.

Peter J. Byrne, (The Louis Berger Group), Senior Airport Planner. Project Manager for the Gary/Chicago International Airport Environmental Impact Statement. Eight years of experience in all aspects of airport planning, capital improvement programs, and project development. Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University, B.S. Professional Aeronautic. Managed construction projects and feasibility studies that involved significant impacts to NEPA established impact categories. Responsible for initiating and maintaining communication with federal, state and local governmental agencies tasked with environmental permitting and Record of Decision (ROD) issuance.

Stephen S. Fitzroy, Ph.D., P.E., (The Louis Berger Group), Principal Economist. Task Manager (Human Environment and Land Use) for the Gary/Chicago International Airport Environmental Impact Statement. Twenty-eight years experience in planning, economic analysis, site evaluation and market analysis. Drexel University, B.S. in Civil Engineering, Pennsylvania State University, M.R.P. in Regional Planning, and Harvard University, Ph.D. in Urban and Regional Planning.

Alex C. Chen, P.E., (The Louis Berger Group), Principal Acoustical Engineer. Principal Environmental Engineer for the Gary/Chicago International Airport Environmental Impact Statement. Twelve years experience with traffic and airport related environmental noise analysis projects. Vanderbilt University and Masters (M.S.C.E) in Civil and Environmental Engineering.

Nancy C. Neuman, Ph.D., QEP, (The Louis Berger Group), Principal Environmental Scientist. Air Quality and Noise Specialist for the Gary/Chicago International Airport Environmental Impact Statement. Twenty-eight years experience with air quality modeling, as well as noise monitoring and modeling, for environmental impact studies of roadways, railways, subways, airports, and stationary sources. Boston University, B.S. in Urban Affairs; Rutgers University, Masters (MCRP) in City and Regional Planning; Rutgers University, Ph.D. in Geography.

George K. Perng, (The Louis Berger Group), Principal Environmental Scientist. Air Quality Specialist for the Gary/Chicago International Airport Environmental Impact Statement. Twenty-three years experience with air emission and impact studies relevant to mobile sources, stationary sources, and non-road engines. Steven Institute of Technology, Master in Environmental Engineering.

Margaret McBrien, P.E., P.W.S., (The Louis Berger Group), Principal Environmental Scientist. Scientist and engineer responsible for managing all aspects of the physical and natural environment section of the Gary/Chicago International Airport Environmental Impact Statement and for preparation of water quality section. Thirteen years experience in wetlands, water quality, watershed evaluations, federal and state regulatory experience, including completing wetland delineations, assessing wetland functions and values, restoring and creating wetlands, writing comprehensive environmental impact assessments, assessing and enforcing compliance with NPDES permits, analyzing municipal and industrial wastewater treatment, and managing stormwater. Specializes in designing wetlands for treating wastewater and stormwater, wetland permitting and mitigation, environmental assessments, habitat evaluations, and watershed management. Northwestern University, M.S., Environmental Engineering.

Ann M. Reed, P.W.S., (The Louis Berger Group), Senior Environmental Scientist. Environmental and Wetland Scientist responsible for compilation of information pertaining to Aquatic Resources for the Gary/Chicago International Airport Environmental Impact Statement. Ten years of experience conducting wetland delineations, preparing wetland impact permit applications, addressing permit compliance, wetland mitigation, restoration, and enhancement design and construction, and post-construction wetland monitoring (vegetation, water quality and benthic-macroinvertebrate sampling). State University of New York at Buffalo, B.A. in Biological Sciences, currently pursuing M.S. in Environmental Science from the New Jersey Institute of Technology and Rutgers University. Certified Professional Wetland Scientist (PWS #00001217).

Tom Shinskey, (The Louis Berger Group), Environmental Scientist. Scientist responsible for assisting in the preparation of the Gary/Chicago International Airport Environmental Impact Statement. Seven years experience in laboratory and field research, finfish and shellfish identification and biological sampling, offshore biological surveys, marine mammal identification and sampling, shorebird identification, and commercial fishing operations. University of Massachusetts Dartmouth (M.S.) in Biology.

Kirsty M. Fulton, (The Louis Berger Group), Environmental Scientist. Assisted in the preparation of the soil and geology sections of the Gary/Chicago International Airport Environmental Impact Statement. Four years experience in wetland delineation, soil and environmental studies, and environmental permitting. University of Rhode Island, B.S. Soil and Water Resources and Oregon State University, M.S. Environmental Soil Science. Certified Associate Professional Soil Scientist.

Heather Depew, (The Louis Berger Group), Environmental Scientist. Scientist and Geographic Information Systems (GIS) Specialist responsible for graphic preparation for all aspects of the Gary/Chicago International Airport Environmental Impact Statement. Five years experience in research, database management, report writing, and field work in support of a variety of subsurface contaminant assessments, site restoration projects, fuel systems retrofit programs, and ecological/wetland and endangered species projects. Extensive experience in developing and managing ArcView GIS and in utilizing Global Positioning Systems (GPS). Rutgers University, B.S., Natural Resource Management, Professional Certification in Geomatic.

Steven Kalashian, (The Louis Berger Group), Environmental Analyst. Analyst responsible for assisting in the preparation of the Gary/Chicago International Airport Environmental Impact Statement. University of Massachusetts at Amherst, B.S. in Environmental Science.

Alex Bertram, (The Louis Berger Group), Economist. Economist for the Gary/Chicago International Airport Environmental Impact Statement. Mr. Bertram is an Economist with The Louis Berger Group, Inc., specializing in regional economics, project finance, and the economic, socioeconomic and financial impact of transportation infrastructure and facilities. New York University Stern School of Business, M.B.A. in Finance and Economics; University of New South Wales, Australia, Candidate, B.E. in Civil Engineering; University of Canberra, A.C.T. Australia, B.S. in Environmental Design.

Bradley Decker, (The Louis Berger Group), Planner. Planner for the Gary/Chicago International Airport Environmental Impact Statement. Mr. Decker specializes in regional economics, land use and transportation planning, socioeconomic impact analysis, and market research. University of North Carolina, M.R.P. in City and Regional Planning; and Appalachian State University, B.S. in Community and Regional Planning.

Marta Szewczyk, (The Louis Berger Group), Environmental Planner. Environmental Planner assisting in the preparation of the Gary/Chicago International Airport Environmental Impact Statement. Colorado School of Mines, M.S. in Environmental Science and Engineering; Hobart and William Smith Colleges, B.A. in Environmental Science.

Victor Bhatia (Clean World Engineering), President. Project Manager for the Gary/Chicago International Airport Environmental Impact Statement. Twenty eight year of experience in all facets of the environmental field including UST management, hazardous waste assessments, environmental law promulgation, implementation, and enforcement, and environmental assessments ranging from Phase I investigations to Environmental Impact Statements.

Thomas Blaszk (Clean World Engineering) Principal Regulatory Specialist. Task Manager for the Gary/Chicago International Airport Environmental Impact Statement. Over twenty-nine years experience including three years with USEPA Region 5 as a senior Environmental Engineer. He has been responsible for multimedia permit strategies, risk assessment, pollution control assessments and the development assessments and impact statements.

Mary Floyd (Clean World Engineering), Senior Environmental Analyst. Environmental Analyst for the Gary/Chicago International Airport Environmental Impact Statement. Over nineteen years experience with environmental compliance, environmental site assessments, audits, and investigations, Environmental data collections and site remediation plans.

Riyaz Syed (Clean World Engineering) Environmental Scientist. Field Task Manager for the Gary/Chicago International Airport Environmental Impact Statement. Over ten years of experience in field sampling and analysis to assess environmental conditions. He has analyzed the resultant field data to characterize impacted soils and groundwater and developed corrective action plans.

7.1.4 Consultants for Gary/Chicago Airport Authority (Contributors)

Mark C. Walbrun, P.E., (TranSystems Corporation). Principal-in-Charge of Gary/Chicago International Airport Rail Relocation. 32 years experience in railroad engineering with comprehensive knowledge of commuter, freight and intercity passenger rail operations and facilities as well as major multi-modal stations, high-speed rail lines, and terminal stations. Serves as Project Director of the CTA Airport Express Service and completed the Transit Alternatives for the I-70 Programmatic Environmental Impact Statement (PEIS) in Denver. University of Illinois, B.S. in Transportation Engineering, 1974; Post Graduate – Transportation Planning, Virginia Polytechnic; Railroad Engineering, Penn State University. Member, Board of Directors, American Railroad Engineering & Maintenance-of-Way Association; Past President, American Railway Bridge & Building Association; Chairman, Rail Transit Committee, Transportation Research Board.

David J. Irving, P.E. (TranSystems Corporation). Chief Rail Engineer for Gary/Chicago International Airport Rail Relocation. More than 27 years of railroad engineering experience including design, construction management, inspection, planning, and administrative duties. Served as Project Manager for the Metra Heritage Corridor Grade Separation Study, Project Manager for the preliminary design of the CTA Brown Line, and Project Manager for the coordination and development of the Joliet BNSF Logistics Park Intermodal Facility. University of Minnesota, B.S. in Civil Engineering; University of Illinois, Short Course in Railway Engineering.

David L. Hadley (TranSystems Corporation). Project Manager for Gary/Chicago International Airport Rail Relocation. 40 years experience in train operations, operations management, and management of train movements, railroad operations planning and coordination of joint use of railroad rights-of-way. Expertise in train movement planning, operational improvement studies, and railroad relocation planning.

Robert W. Nastal (TranSystems Corporation). Rail Specialist for Gary/Chicago International Airport Rail Relocation. Former Project Engineer and Roadmaster with 27 years experience in the railroad industry with expertise in leading track and infrastructure inspections, analyzing existing railroad conditions and identifying required improvements. University of Illinois, M.B.A. and Pennsylvania State University, B.S. in Man Environment Relations.

Allene Leftwich (TranSystems Corporation). Lead Design Engineer for Gary/Chicago International Airport Rail Relocation. Expertise includes intermodal facility design, drainage, and digital terrain modeling. Virginia Polytechnical and State University, B.S. in Civil Engineering.

Eric Neubauer (TranSystems Corporation). Design Engineer for Gary/Chicago International Airport Rail Relocation. Expertise includes airport, roadway and track design. University of Illinois, B.S. in Civil Engineering.

Tim Macaskill, E.I.T. (TranSystems Corporation). Design Engineer for Gary/Chicago International Airport Rail Relocation. Expertise includes railway simulation modeling. Louisiana Tech University, B.S. in Civil Engineering.

Robert W. Wolfe, P.W.S., (JFNew & Associates) Vice President. Mr. Wolfe is the Director of Ecological Services for JFNew with over 15 years of experience in ecological consulting including wetland delineation and permitting, endangered species surveys, and habitat assessment and restoration. University of Florida, B.S. in Forest Resources and Conservation and M.S. in Wetland Ecology.

Kristi Sherfinski, W.P.I.T. (JFNew & Associates) Botanist. Ms. Sherfinski has over 3 years of experience as a field ecologist carrying out ecological site assessments, botanical and endangered species surveys, and wetland delineations. University of Wisconsin-Madison, B.S. in Biochemistry; and Michigan State University, M.S. in Botany.

Marianne Giolitto, (JFNew & Associates) Aquatic and Wetland Ecologist. Ms Giolitto has over 7 years of experience in wetland delineations, ecological site assessments, watershed and lake assessment and management plans. Notre Dame University, B.S. in Biology; Indiana University, M.S. in Environmental Science (Aquatic Ecology).

Scott Namestnik, (JFNew & Associates) Botanist. Mr. Namestnik has over 5 years of experience in ecological consulting carrying out wetland delineations, botanical and endangered species surveys, ecological site assessments and monitoring habitat restoration projects. Miami University (Ohio), B.S. in Botany.
